Docket No. 11-CR-486 (DLI)
2013 ★

BROOKLYN OFFICE

CONSENT TO HAVE A PLEA TAKEN
BEFORE A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE.

The United States Magistrate Judge has informed me of my right to have my plea taken before a United States District Judge. I have further been advised, however, that I may consent to have the plea taken before a Magistrate Judge. I understand that I will suffer no prejudice if I refuse to so consent. I further understand that if I do not consent, the District Court Judge assigned rather than the Magistrate Judge will conduct the plea allocution.

After having discussed this matter fully with my counsel, I hereby consent to enter my plea before a Magistrate Judge.
